⇒ our story ⇒

We grew up in Uncle Faris's kitchen where he served us - two best friends - the best homemade food. That's why, years later, we started a business to serve food the same way he did; delicious, homemade, fresh, natural, and made with love. It's food that respects and connects the community of people who grow, prepare, and eat the food we serve. It's called food with roots, and we want to share it with you.
